GREAT MEN

The Difficulties of Including Famous Posple in This Category.

To draw up a list of the men and man. Its dignity cannot be clevated. It is women to whom the title "great" should properly be granted in history was rather a favorite diversion some time ago among the large class of the public who crave such futile occupation. How very few persons have lived within all the zeons of human memory whom mankind with one accord pronounces. It is man, its dignity cannot be clevated. It is man, it is dignity cannot be clevated. mankind with one accord pronounces to have been great. The parson, the doctor, the soldier and the lawyer, if they be devoted to their professions, will each furnish a list. Greed will ments which in time to come will be a betray itself. Fancies and cranks and part of themselves, and bless generations yet unborn. Yes, to woman is given the pedantries innumerable will assert their

Of those who, by hypothesis, are de-

tise. For instance, neither Marlbor ample of what the medicine can do. She ough nor Wellington would be found in says she has suffered for years with conthe list of the accepted, nor even Fred-erick of Prussia, though in the opinion and was troubled with a bad cough. She of experts they showed military genius had tried a number of physicians, but as great as Bonaparte's, and their they all failed to cure her. She was inas great as Bonaparte's, and their they all failed to cure her. She was in-lives were certainly more useful to man-kind. But lives were certainly more useful to mankind. But certain faculties or semblances are needed beyond pre-eminence in any special art to with the abiding enthusiasm of the human race. If the followers of each profession were sole-judges, they would exalt the memory of certain specialists quite unfamiliar to the public. But in exait the memory of certain specialists quite unfamiliar to the public. But in a civilized society not every man is a soldier, still less a doctor or a theologian; and the multitude is by no means impressed with the greatness that overwhelms a learned society. His mind, his fame, his actions must all be great to bear scrutiny. The public takes a large view of a man before recognizing him to be supremely close. Henri ing him to be supremely close. Henri Quatre seldom won a battle, and the elder Due de Guise seldom lead to the close seld Each was called grand in his lifetime, but the popular voice speedily decided. Timour was no savage marauder, as the school-books used to teach, but history reserved its distinction for his successor in "the fifth generation, though Achber did not rival him in conquests; but there is no sound reason why the public choice should settle upon warr.ors. Great deeds overshadow the small weaknesses humanity. Three men, it may be said. A Soldier of Fortune and His Wife Reduced have conquered the world within his-toric times. Scholars find evidence enough that Alexander's mind was ill-market can see near the fish departbalanced, his moods often childish, his ment an old and shriveled couple, bevanity grotesque, his temper unregu-lated, his disposition coarse. Every schoolboy, to use the consecrated phrase, is aware that Julius Cresar

The old man and his wife are was false, vicious and desperate, even beyond rival in his abandoned known as "Adam and Eve," and spend age. Of Napoleon, who is ignorant the day along the wharves, catching that his silliness and meanness were almost equal to his grandeur? But we them in the market, and thus manage admit the greatness of these men "all the same." The glow that surrounds their public ach evements hides the folly, sin, or pettishness of their individual character. If Cromwell had run his career in France or Germany he would have been reckoned among the would have been reckoned among the grandest of mankind, but in the com-petition of lists suggested he would hardly have a place among the half-Englishman. Ignorance and enthusiasm combined would have woven legends and romance around him, idealizing, magnifying, suppressing and inventing until the plain, straightforward squire was transformed into an annual course of the famous white and red wines for which the province. ward squire was transformed into an celebrated, and in the playing of cards, epic hero. Something akin to this was done in Ireland, though in the reverse;

Marrying at the age of twenty years, to do the age of twenty years, a great passion among his countrymen. well informed. They or their repreentatives who transmitted the rep had watched the member for Cambridge, session after session, during that country during the height of the sixteen years, before he sprang into world-wide renown at Marston Moor. The description which Sir Philip Wartime description which Sir Philip War-wick wrote, or others like it, had cir-culated for and wide while his fam. culated far and wide while his fame was growing in the House. Not members but their constituents, knew the gentleman, very ordinarily appareled, for it was a plain cloth suit, which seemed to have been made by an ill country tailor. His linen was plain and not very clean; and I remember a speck or two of blood upon his little band, which was not much larger than his collar. His hat was w thout a hatband. His stature was of good size; his sword stuck close to his side; his countenance swollen and reddish; his voice sharp and untunable, and his eloquence full of fervor." An excellent sketch, invaluable to us now, but killing to popular enthusiasm. Our historians have almost ceased to call Alfred "the great," since he and his works have been better understood. Most admirable they were, but people feel that the best Saxon king belonged to the class of "specialists." So long to the class of "specialists. as the world accredited to him all the grand principles of English freedom and government no one disputed his title; but one by one those legends have been questioned or disproved. The figure of Alfred remains a gallant soldier, a devoted patriot, a most intelligent philanthropist, but especially bourgeoise in the tone of his mind, interested in narrow matters, cheerfully inquisitive, anxious to do all the good in his power after the conventional model and by conventional means; great Alfred was, at many points: but a question. - London Standard. -The steamer Oregon, on a voyage from Portland, Ore., to San Francisco, encountered an immense whale, and struck it with such force that the big vessel shook from stem to stern. In ne unaccountable way the monster's head then became wedged in between the rod of the rudder and the vessel, and in that way the whale was carried along with the steamer for several people imagine another sort of character in one whom they call a great man.

Whether most of them, or any, have been as useful to mankind may well be

-Buenos Ayres is one of the most prosperous cities in the world, but we atta (Sa.) Journal. are so far removed from it that we hardly realize its importance. It has a population of four hundred thousand people, and a hundred and fifty thousand emigrants arrive in its harbor each year. There is no other city that can show such rapid growth as this.

-The latest swindle relating to spurious money is the split bank note fraud. A twenty dollar bank note is taken, and by some ingenious method the note is split in two, and the raw side is "doctored up," and each half is passed off as a genuine twenty dollar note. The work is done so artistically in most cases that it is difficult at first to detect the fraud. -N. Y. Henald.

Woman's Province. THE DUTIES OF THE GENTLER SEX-

HOW BEST FULFILLED.

What a great task is assigned to wopedantries innumerable will assert their supremacy. But in the result, if choice were lim ted to a score of names, selected in all lands and ages, it is likely that two alone, or three at most, would be found in every list if a score of persons competed. No greater approach to unanimity could be looked for.

Of those who, by hypothesis, are deformed and the standard and the sta Of those who, by hypothesis, are de-clared on all hands to be worthy of jurity of the complaints incident to this respect and admiration for all time, climate, It is invaluable to women, and every one, it is probable, will be a warrior, but not a warrior and nothing Columbiana county. Ohio, is a noted ex-

> Nancy Feterman, Cookport, Indiana County, Pa., says: "Gentlemen: Your valuable Peruna is the best medicine I ever used."

Ps-R: "-sa is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles $5.00. If you cannot get it from your druggist, we will send it on receipt of regular price. We prefer you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try som, thing else, but order from us at once as itrected.

S. B. Hastina *1.00. Columbus

"ADAM AND EVE."

speaks English very imperfectly, but in a conversation had with him a couple of days since enough was learned to show that his career had been a checkinvolved in a difficult soon after with an Arnaout, and stabbing him to the heart, fied to Spain, arriving in the northern part of Carlist war, and espousing the cause of Don Carlos, followed his varying forto Trieste, on the Adriatic, where he engaged in merchandising, and in a few years acquired a competence. Tiring of a commercial life he emigrated to South America, and entering the Brazillian army rose to the rank of a Majo of cavalry, but for some fancied dis-obedience of orders, lost his commission. He then drifted to the Pacific side, and remained in Chili for severa years, without bettering his condition. When Maximilan moved upon Mexico, lenti made his way to that country and was given a subaltern's commis striking of the many queer sights to be seen along the water front of this southern seaport. With all his poverty the old man scorns to solicit alms, and, with a spark of pride, will exclaim:

"Me no tramp: me no beggar; me old soldier.—Galveston (Tex.) Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat. -A worthy farmer and his family of this county have been attending the meeting at a church in the country. Sometimes they would walk, and morning."—Detroit Free Press. sometimes they would ride, the distance being about one mile and a half. After the service was over the other night the gentleman, wife and two daughters walked home, and just before going to bed the absent-minded family happened to think that the wagon and horse had been left at the church. The gentleman walked back

sion in the Austrian contingent, and of the Emperor at Queretoro, declining the foreign troops departed. After the death of the Emperor. Buolenti, upon whom age and hardships were making inroads, made his way to Vera Cruz, and eked out an existence in that place until some years ago, when he managed to get to Galveston with his wife on a passing schooner. There he embarked in the crab catching business, which he has followed ever since, and the old couple dressed in rage, form one of the most to leave the country when Bazaine an ed until the downfall and execution

How to procure green fodder for poultry in winter has been solved by a farmer at South Easton, Mass. He sows a piece of rye in August quite thickly, and by fertilizing freely he gets it eighteen inches high -a mass of reen vegetation. When frozen solid and before the snow covers it, he cuts and packs it away in an outhouse, where it remain frozen till needed. Every day or two in winter he exposes a portion of this to the warm air until to the church and found his bor-e hitched where he had left him. Mari-

TWO HUMORISTS.

How One of Them Procured a Meal at & During the war Ferd. Hamilton was once assigned to duty as orderly to Gen- long as a hoe-handle. The Cook eral Fagan. Hamilton's character is a study. War, pestilence, nothing could man who lived several miles distant from the camp. Hamilton accompanied him. He rode at regulation distance behind the General. As they neared the house, Fagan stopped at a large, heavy gate, of course, expecting Hamilton to dismount and open it. Hamilton rode up and stopped. Fagan looked at him; he looked at Fagan.

Fagan got down, without saying a word, and opened the gate. Hamilton rode through and waited until the Gentrolem what are you making such a noise for this control of the cont eral caught up with him. Fagan for?" Children's Chorus—"Why, to hitched his own horse and, taking a keep the baby quiet, mamma."—Harseat on the gallery, began a conversa-tion with the man whom he had come sense of humor that, excusing himself, he went behind the house and laughed until he grew red in the face. other humorist, a practical joker sharp girl on the beach at Old Point. named Henry McNette, who is now a "They are saving they are glad they pilot on the Arkansas River. Just at this time in the history of the Confed- and low.—Cincinnati Merchant-Traveracy, rations became scarce. Parched and low. Cincinnati Merchant-Traconce in a long while, but are objection-" What are you reading, dear? able when taken as a steady diet. Mc-Nette noticed that Lieutenant Nowlin Three Monsquetaires," replied the frequently visited a farm house, the elegant country seat of Judge Beach. He had often seen the Never heard of it. Something about handsome Miss Beach, and he knew New Jersey, I suppose." - Pittsburgh that Nowlin was paying special atten-tions to her. One day McNette went - Snell to Judge Beach's house and rang the door bell. When a servant appeared, McNette put his hat under his arm and with a hole in the knee of his pants. asked if he could see Miss Beach.

"Is this Miss Beach?" McNette asked, as he humbly bowed to the face."—Chicago Ledger. young lady. "Yes."

voung lady. She would not allow any found land. Setter up. -St. Paul Herof the servants to prepare the meal. She broiled the chicken herself and, Beach.

"Why?" he asked. "Because of your illness."
"I haven't been ill?"

BACKWOODS JUSTICE.

and state whether or not you know the teen factories is about 1,500 dozen each cow said to have been stolen by the de-day. dant. If you do, state her age and value; in a word, tell all you know about her."

"Mr. Lawyer, ask one question and speak louder. I'm thick o' hearin'." "Well, if you know the cow, state how old she is."

"I owned her thirteen years ago." "Answer my question, how old is

"Don't know; was so old I put hickory withes on her horns for the wrinkles to run out on.

"I didn't ask how much milk she gave: state her value. "Age ain't nothin'. I don't know state how much right smart is." "She gives a pint in the mornin' and "Is she quiet? Does she ever kick the pail over?"

"I accept the amendment. She kicks and spills every day one-half the "Jim Baxter, you are an expert -a smart Alex.; is a pint and a half your estimate of right smart?"

"Yass, that is the law in Indiana and in old Kaintuck, whar I was born." The Court turns to the Clerk and states: "Mr. Clerk, whereas Indiana and Kaintuck, being older States, heretofore let it be recorded as a ruling that henceforth a pint and a half of whisky, rum and all life-invigorating beverages, including milk, shall be known and acknowledged as 'right smart' in this, the First Judicial District of the Commonwealth of Illinois. Call the next witness." The bar rises in a body and informs his Honor that the hour appointed for the horse race has arrived. night services of a protracted religious Sheriff, adjourn court, sine die, till

> She Defied All Competition. Moses Everbaum's store stands on the corner, and has an entrance on each street. Yesterday an elderly lady from Sugar Grove went into Moses' store to buy a suit of clothes for her grandson. She found what she wanted and asked the price.

"Dwelf tollars, mom," said Moses. "O. gracious me! I can buy clo'es jest as good as them for eight dollars. Can't you sell them any cheaper?" "Not you cent cheaper, mom. Dis ish a strictly von-brice house." The old lady was about to depart

when Moses said for that suit! Why at the store around to be imagination that makes it seem as

The Prince of Wales is entitled to wear seventy different uniforms, but he destroy his peculiar individuality. One never puts on more than one at a time. day General Fagan called on a gentle- This is his uniform habit. Arkansan Traveler > -Can't Get Ahead of Her. A man may jaw and engage in strife.

>
> And a man may have his say:

But he can't, for his life, get ahead of his Because he ain't built that way.

Old Mr. Bently "I see that at the to see. Hamilton hitched his horse, took a seat near Fagan, leaned back, base ball game vesterday the home club lighted a cob pipe and took an active put in its strongest battery." Old Mrs. part in the conversation. Fagan was a Bently-"You don't tell me. I wonder strict disciplinarian, but he had such a what they'll do with electricity next?" -N. Y. Independent.

- "What are the wild waves say-In the same command there was an- ing?" asked a flip young man of a

- "Spell furze." said the stripling school teacher to the barefooted boy "F-u-r-z-e, furze," said the boy, rub-The servant crabbedly replied that he bing the flies from one leg with the would see. Presently Miss Beach apother foot. "What does it mean?" "Please, sir, it's what grows on your

- The Spanish and German barks are having a howling time at Yap. Each "Lieutenant Nowlin, who is very ill, Spitz at the other and exhibits a very "Well, sit down there," said the would like to take a whack at a new ald.

feasted. "There was enough for three ing. "No. I won't," exclaimed the The next day Nowlin called on Miss Dr. Franklin agrees; Dr. Franklin says: 'Take care of the pence and the pounds 'I am surprised to see you," she will take care of themselves." - Chicago Tribune.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

"You haven't? How did you enjoy a man he is. I know him. He's that infernal Henry McNette."—Arkansau English merchants."

-Reading, Pa., is the leading hat center of the United States, and of the twenty-three establishments in the Old Settler's Account of an Illinois State fifteen are located in Reading and vicinity, manufacturing 35,000 hats an-

> -A German writer estimates the number of blind persons in the world at about 1,000,000. This is not a mere guess, but is based on accurate statestics, which show that, on the average, BOYS' guess, but is based on accurate statisthere is one blind per on among every 1,400; hence, as this planet has about 1,400,000,000 inhabitants, this would Journal.

N. Y., was shot in the arm last fall "She gives right smart of milk every and, mortification setting in, the doctors gave him up, as he was too weak to submit to amoutation. His arm came off, however, without saw or knife, and the price of beef cattle."

"Is she worth fifteen dollars? Also ever. This is considered one of the most remarkable cases on record. -N. Y. Mail.

-A man in an English theater re cently bissed through the whole per formance. His action was so marked that he was finally asked why he did so, as the performance was one of unusual merit. He explained that his throat had been operated on some time before, and that it contained a silver Whenever he was unusually pleased a hissing noise was the result.

-There was never a time in the publishing business, says an expert, when proflers of manuscript from women were so numerous. Society belles seem to have all at once caught the fever of authorship. As some houses will publish almost anything in which the profit is assured, but nothing from untried pens without a guarantee, they can usually give a definite answer to an "Thanks, gentlemen of the bar, Mr. applicant without first reading the copy. - Chicago Mail.

-A recent interesting exhibition of apparatus in Paris by Dr. Boudet, included modifications of the telephone, adapting the instrument to a variety of medical uses. In one form the pulsations of the blood vessels and all sorts advertising DODGES they reof internal operations were very str kingly made andible, the observer being sort to to decoy you to their able to hear at will the movements in any part of the body. Another tele- store and deceive you in their phonic appliance detected the presence goods. WE WANT YOU TO of stones in the bladder, and even made known their character when present KNOW that we CAN AND DO

Value of Autographs

A catalogue of autographs at hand sell you HONEST GOODS AT from a reputable New York house "Der ish von of dose cheap eloding houses right aroundt der corner.

Mebby you git vat you want in dhere."

The old lady stepped around the corner and into the other door where were aldest around the corner and into the other door where were given a destroy and offered the state of the father of his country. corner and into the other door where Moses' oldest son met her and offered the hand of the father of his country. her the same suit for eight dollars.
"O, my," said she," "eight dollars the Richmond Treasury seal is offered A Confederate marine license bearing for that suit! Why at the store around the corner I was just offered a suit like is valued at ten dollars. A letter by Lafayette is valued at ten dollars. A letter hens. A free use of this green food alternately with boiled potatoes and cabbage gives healthy fowls and an abundance of eggs.—Boston Bulletin. "Let her have it vor six tollar. Levi," yelled Moses from the other end of the store, "I guess she defies all gomabundance of eggs.—Boston Bulletin. "Chicago News.

The sting of the bee is only one shirty-second of an median long; it is said to be made at long that makes it seem as the long that makes it seem as

RECEIVED TO-DAY

Newest Choicest and

No. 9805, Friese Visities, Black and Brown, Elegantly Trimmed

No. 3933. Brocade Velvet Visite, Hare Trimming.

No. 8580, Boucle Visite, Coney Trimming.

No. 2595, Brocade Silk Visite, Hare Trimming.

No. 2500, Matelasse Visite, Coney Trimming.

No. 5675, Black Cloth Visite, Astrachan Trimming.

No. 6720, Ottoman Cord Visite, Coney Trimming.

No. 9497. Fancy Cloth Brocade Visites, Mink Trimming.

No. 1463, Plain Cloth Visites, Beaded Passamentrie Trimming.

No. 3730, Ottoman Silk Visite, Chenille Trimming.

SEAL PLUSH SACQUES.

$17.00. VALUE. $25.00.

NEW MARKET WRAPS in all the new materials, trimmed in Otter, Beaver and Frieze, WE SOLICIT A CALL.

BLACK, BRO.

Scintillating With Bargains!

BRUCE, HAUK & CO'S

Gigantic establishment contains the largest stock of ordered me to come over and ask you to send him a broiled chicken and anything else that you think he might will be to make Spain-yell. This will do for a pointer to some other terrier who Ever shown under one roof. We offer these goods at retail only, as -Will you give me them pennies we want our customers to get the full benefit of our great bargains. nicely arranging the "spread," gave it to McNette, who again bowed humbly, one after giving him a severe thumpfeasted. "There was enough for three ing. "No. I won't." exclaimed the men," he said, in speaking of the affair, little one. Then I'll give you another obut on that occasion I was three men myself."

To ound away. Me and do the work FREE OF CHARGE.

MEN'S and YOUTHS'

"You haven't? How did you enjoy the chicken?" "What chicken?" "Why, one of your soldiers came bere and said that you had sent for a broiled chicken. He was a—" "Never mind. I know what sort of a man he is. I know him. He's that ering hess that as greatly distinguishes residue. The soldiers came bere and said that you had sent for a broiled chicken. He was a—" "Never mind. I know what sort of a man he is. I know him. He's that ering hess that as greatly distinguishes residue. The soldiers came bave little of that 'disgusting patronage of, manner that prevails in England among the richer classes." and none of the 'no less disgusting ering hess that as greatly distinguishes residue. The soldiers came bave little of that 'disgusting patronage of, manner that prevails in England among the richer classes." and none of the 'no less disgusting ering hess that as greatly distinguishes residue.

SUITS

We are showing the most elegant line of these suits it has ever "Jim Baxter, take the witness stand nually. The daily capacity of the lif- been our lot to show to the people of Springfield. These choice styles are in fine imported Worsteds and Corkscrews in dark wine colors. brown, black and blue. Our prices range from $12 to $30.

OVERCOATS! SUITS AND

No matter what style or make is required, we have them. We make 1,000,000 blind folks.—Chicago have every style that the most fond parent could wish for. The -William Van Tassel, of Tarrytown, Alpine Cape Overcoats for children.

The Clothiers in whom the People Have Confidence.

Nos. 17 and 19, High Street and Arcade.

OLD RELIABLE

HANCE'S

CHEAP

Shoe Store!

J. D. Smith Company

Globe Building, Cor. West High St. Printers, Binders

AND STATIONERS. No matter how much others Blank Book Work and Legal Blanks a specialty BLOW, no matter how many ESTABLISHED IN 1836.

WM. GRANT'S SONS,

CO. E. Y. EMERIQUE, No. 64 West High Street.

For the positive relief and cure of ALL SEXUAL WEAKSESSES. Weighs only one oz.; easy and con fortable to wear; with weak an nercour men its results are appas ently miraculous Sealed particular free. Mention paper, Address M. E. A. CO. 1267 Broadway, New-York D. W. Prichard.

MAGNETO-ELECTRO CIRCLET

PRICE ONLY TWO DOLLARS

Patent Standing Seam Iron Roofing

and Corrugated Siding and Ceiling. Sagendorph's Flexible Canvas Boofing suitable or all kinds of buildings. Agents for the Mott Metallic Tin Shingles, superior to state for all ornamental work.

ROOF REPAIRING AND PAINTING We claim that Sagendorph's Obelisk Metallic Paint and Cement will effectually stop all leaks in in and Iron roofs, and that if a roof is coated by us it will be kept in good repair for the term of five years without any additional cost to the owner. The roofs condenned by tinners a specialty. All work fully guaranteed for five years, five us a call.

D. W. PRITCHARD, & CO.

The drug store in the St. James hotel building corner Main and Limestone Sts., is offered for sale at a bargain. If not dis-Everything New and Clean.

All Kinds of Smoked and Fresh Meats Constantly on Hand.

Everything New and Clean.

Sourced for sale at a bargain. If not disposed of at private sale before, it will be offered at public sale at 1230 p. m. of Tuesday, Nov. 24, 1885. Time will be given on approved security. Apply to Jacob Seitz, representing mortgages or to 1.

HANCE &

LESS PRICES than any other dealers in the city.

14 W. MAIN. Next to Black's Opera House.